

Control your gambling

Description

I had a couple of issues with a free <https://www.devilishlygood.co.uk/> bet which they sorted out pretty much as soon as I asked. Deposited £110, attempted to withdraw £60 and was instantly refused access to my account. I won't advise anyone to open an account with them

- Now my account is blocked.
- However, these offers are rare in sports betting due to the higher cost for bookmakers.
- Log in using your usual banking credentials, and complete the transaction, and then you'll receive the money as soon as your only casino has approved and processed the withdrawal.
- It's important to note that for anti-money laundering reasons, you'll most likely only be able to withdraw using a method that you've previously used to make a deposit.
- Our commitment to player protection means we only list new casinos that provide practical tools to help you manage your activity.
- The best way to ensure you can claim these offers is by creating your account via a link found on this page at Bookies.com.

Only good thing is streaming racing. Avoid the casino at all costs. Now my account is blocked. The live football feeds (commentary / stats etc) went down yesterday. Why the negative reviews?

Over/Under Goals Football Tips

- Deposit min £10+ cash & wager on any Slot Game within 7 days of sign-up.
- BetHawk consistently identifies value bets averaging +15% EV – that means odds 15% higher than a bet's 'true' value.
- Card betting tips are a relatively niche market but offer excellent value if you know what you're looking for.
- The live football feeds (commentary / stats etc) went down yesterday.
- Thanks everyone for your post regarding poor communication, suspended accounts and basically illegal immoral practices of not processing withdrawals.
- Ladbrokes have great coverage across a range of sports as you would expect by a leading high street brand.

Been with Mcbookies a couple of years, but since reading these reviews, have doubted if I won anything worthwhile, they would actually pay it, as a pensioner I set myself a daily deposit limit of £10, this week I made a withdrawal of £80 a rare event, it took 2 chats to admin and 4 1/2 hours for them to transfer it to my bank. And just to be clear I've not received a fee or free bets of any kind for posting positive views about the company it's purely my opinion thoughts and views. I showed proof early on and when I did win they pay out within 24/48 hours sometimes much faster So again for people that say they won't pay out if you win do you honestly think the company would still be in business if that was really true.

Support a loved one who gambles

They tell me that they lost my money and tell me that in a couple of days they will resolve that. I explained to them at least 5 times and they still won't close the account or at least contact the guy that opened the account to ask him to update his email. They said I needed to transfer the money to my real account when I won. I don't think I'll be playing there anytime soon!

Today's Acca Tips

However, I spoke to Martin on live chat who sorted it out straightaway for me. Won some bets which hit my account within a few hours after requesting the withdrawal. I've reported this betting company to a gambling complaints place because they're a fraud company and just scamming people for money.. Stopped allowing me to place horse racing bets after 1 day. The money you'll lose on the odds isn't worth the free bet I've never seen such a dreadfully poor set of prices on every single event They take the odd... They have not paid out the win from the grand national and the each way bets I also placed their computer/system... Interesting. Completed the wagering requirements for the bonus (even with the shockingly bad odds offered) and the page to claim th...

Just like in the case of deposits, you'll be redirected to the Trustly platform to select your bank and log in. Once you've selected Trustly as your withdrawal method, enter the amount of money you want to withdraw, and confirm the transaction. Here, you'll choose your bank, and then log in with your online banking credentials. Signing up at a UK Trustly casino only takes a few minutes.

They tell me that they lost my money!

But I'm sure their casino games run fine. Free bets that don't work and the live chat are idiots, they have no idea about the site or how to use it. Honestly the most inept piece of trash website ever created. Charge for money in and out, and the games don't work Staked £250, bet won – company closed my account and said I had an active gamstop. Worse site I've ever been on how the hell they've got a licence baffles me put 50pound in used the bonus won 3.60 started doing 1 pound spins won 243 pound went to withdraw told me I was using bonus spins went to draw my 50 pound out told me could only draw out 100 pound Deposited £20 on a bonus played through ended up with £2150 all paid within 24hours unreal!!!!

These bet credits often come with specific wagering requirements or usage restrictions, so it's important to check the terms before claiming. You may also see promotions where the matched free bet is higher than your stake, giving extra value on your initial wager. In many cases, your first bet after registration is the one that determines eligibility. However, it's vital to review the full terms and conditions, including how cashback is calculated and whether it's credited as withdrawable cash or a free bet. Terms and conditions apply and deposits are generally required. Betmaze introduced a 'Bet £10 Get £10' deal where they previously had no welcome offer, and Coral adjusted their promotion to 'Bet £5 Get £30'.
