History of the Rio All-Suite Hotel and <https://riolasvegascasino.ca/> Casino

The Rio All-Suite Hotel and Casino was opened on June 8, 1990, by Marnell Corrao Associates (MCA). The resort was designed to resemble a Brazilian-themed village, with its buildings inspired by traditional Portuguese colonial architecture. The name "Rio" comes from the city of Rio de Janeiro in Brazil, which is famous for its Carnival celebrations and vibrant culture.

The hotel quickly became popular among visitors due to its unique concept and amenities. In 1999, Harrah's Entertainment (now Caesars Entertainment) acquired MCA and added the Rio Hotel & Casino to their portfolio. The resort has undergone several renovations over the years to maintain its competitiveness in the Las Vegas market.
